

LESS RISK INTEGRATED PAYMENTS.

Mr & Mrs Smith is a travel publisher and online hotel booking service specialising in small, boutique luxury hotels.

The Challenge

The company previously used corporate credit cards as their supplier payment option. However, providing the same card details to a large number of third-party suppliers carried a high risk of fraud and misuse, with cards often reaching their maximum payment threshold due to the volume of transactions being processed.

The eNett Solution

To solve this issue, Mr & Mrs Smith turned to eNett. eNett provides a unique, single-use, Virtual Account Number (VAN) with an exact transaction value and future activation date for each supplier payment. eNett also integrates the VANs into the company's existing booking system via eNett's API.

Results

By switching to eNett, Mr & Mrs Smith has improved security with single-use card numbers and earns a rebate on every transaction, meaning that company cards no longer exceed their limits.

Based on the success it experienced with eNett, Mr & Mrs Smith increased its business with eNett by 75% from 2013 to 2014.

“ eNett VANs reduced the financial risk associated with online transactions by allowing us to issue virtual cards for an exact transaction value, and include a future activation date. Our transition to eNett has been exceedingly positive for our underlying business. ”
